DEDICATION

Rena Milliken

For her unwavering loyalty and devotion to the ideals of Union College, for her service to community and church, and for her interest in the welfare of all students, the 1967 Stespean is dedicated to

MISS RENA MILLIKEN

Many paths and many reasons bring us to Union . . .

For some a new experience, for others a joyful reunion . . .

For failing to obey,
some must pay
in a small way . . .

Quiet moments of solitude . . . or losing himself in the noise of the campus . . . all are part of the many phases in the life of a Union student.

We are caught up in the pressures of the academic world. It demands much of us — only to give back more.

Each of us seeks our own diversion from the academic world — whether it be a nap in the dorm, games at a picnic, or working on a car.

Committed to various ideas and opinions . . . we come together . . . exchanging views . . . sometimes quietly . . . often vigorously . . . but always learning from one another.

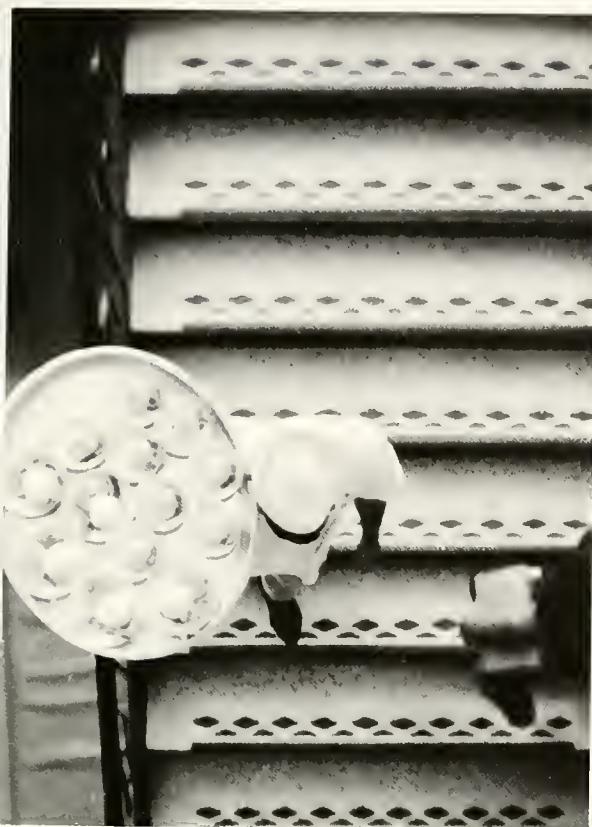

In the mists of the morning, a busy day begins at Union . . .

Smiles and friendly ways are long remembered as a characteristic of the campus . . .

Just as a puddle reflects a chapel tower each of us reflects an individual personality.

Our memories are widely distributed, but found . . . "Only at Union."

Here we spend our days and nights in a world of our own . . .

ABIGAIL E. WEEKS MEMORIAL LIBRARY
UNION COLLEGE
BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY

And with the snow comes a winter wonderland . . .

Members of the faculty help us select our courses of study . . .

Moments of study and research
are spent here . . .

A place where ideas are set forth and accepted or rejected.

The long-awaited improvement of the dining hall becomes a reality . . .

A meeting place . . .
A melting pot of scholars . . . A cup of coffee shared or perhaps an idea . . .
The Center.

And so the year passes with varying events and activities.

The year ends . . . and we leave with many memories.

TRADITIONS

Mr. Union

HARRY LOY

This year the title of Mr. Union goes to Harry Loy, Columbia, Kentucky. Selected by the student body from the senior boys, Mr. Union is chosen as one who best represents the characteristics of friendliness and congeniality, who upholds the traditions of the college, who has a variety of interests, and who possesses purpose in life. Harry is a member of the basketball team, the baseball team, and U Club. He is majoring in business.

Miss Union is Jane Law, Selbyville, Delaware, who was chosen by the student body from the senior girls. A candidate for the B.S. degree in elementary education, she has been a member of S.N.E.A., hockey team, girls' intramurals, Playlikers, and Alpha Psi Omega, acting in the production of "Private Lives." She has been a candidate for Homecoming Queen, Lakeside Queen, Alpha Phi Omega Sweetheart Queen, Stespean Queen, and this year was selected as the swim team's first queen.

JANE LAW

Miss Union

Miss Stespean

JANICE HEGGAN

Miss Stespean 1967 is Janice Heggan, a sophomore from Cherry Hill, New Jersey, representing Circle K Club. She was selected by Bess Myerson, Miss America 1945, nationally known TV panelist, for facial beauty and personality as shown in her photograph.

Union College's representative to the 1966 Mountain Laurel Pageant was Norma Jean Osborne, a junior from Barbourville, Kentucky. She was selected by a faculty committee to compete against girls from other Kentucky colleges at the Mountain Laurel Festival held in May each year at Pineville, Kentucky. Norma is an elementary education major with a biology minor.

FAITH EILEEN JOHNSON

Homecoming Queen

The Homecoming Queen, Faith Eileen Johnson, was chosen by the student body from representatives of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. A sophomore from Trenton, New Jersey, she is a physical education major with a minor in home economics. Faith is a member of Beta Chi Alpha sorority and has been a candidate for Alpha Phi Omega Sweetheart Queen and Lakeside Queen. A cheerleader, she is also active in girls' intramurals and is a member of Pi Epsilon Alpha, as well as Organizations Editor of the Stespean.

The 1966-67 Sweetheart Queen, chosen by Alpha Phi Omega, is Marsha Kit Seplak, a freshman from Huntingdon Valley, Pennsylvania. A major in physical education, she participates in S.N.E.A. and is planning to teach.

Sigma Alpha Iota

Sigma Alpha Iota is an internationally incorporated professional sorority for women in the field of music. Based on scholarship, musicianship, personality, and character, membership in Sigma Alpha Iota is open to college music students of undergraduate and graduate levels and to faculty members in schools where the sorority has chapters. The local chapter has joined with Phi Mu Alpha to present an evening of American music as part of the Arts and Faith Festival.
